[Consolidated Case]

NOTICE OF WAIVER REGARDING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR LEAVE

MALC, on behalf of all plaintiffs, moves for leave to seek dozens of depositions out of time. ECF 433. Defendants opposed that motion in part, objecting to plaintiffs' motion insofar as it seeks the deposition of Eric Wienckowski, Thomas Bryan, Dr. Randy Stevenson, David Falk, the Lieutenant Governor, Congressman Kevin Brady, and Senator Brian Birdwell ("Third Parties"). ECF 466. The United States and Texas NAACP filed reply briefs. ECF 478, 486. Defendants and the Third Parties file this notice to advise the Court that plaintiffs have failed to respond to the arguments raised with respect to the Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Stevenson, and Mr. Falk. Those issues are therefore waived.

In their Opposition brief, Defendants and Third Parties explained that taking the Lieutenant

Governor's deposition at this late stage would be improper because (i) plaintiffs neither served a deposition subpoena on him during the fact-discovery period nor pursued his deposition through a request to counsel; and (ii) even if plaintiffs had timely sought the Lieutenant Governor's deposition, it would still be impermissible due to the high-ranking government official doctrine. Opp. at 3–5 (citing Texas v. Holder, No. 1:12-cv-128, ECF 186 (D.D.C. June 14, 2012)) (three judge court) (quashing deposition of Lieutenant Governor). Defendants and Third Parties also explained that the depositions of Dr. Stevenson and Mr. Falk are unnecessary because the information plaintiffs seek can be fully addressed in Dr. John Alford's deposition. Opp. at 6–7.

The Opposition was filed on July 22nd, meaning that any reply was due on July 29th. Local Rule CV-7(e). The United States and Texas NAACP filed replies, addressing arguments raised as to some of the witnesses at issue. See ECF 478 (as to Eric Wienckowski and Thomas Bryan); ECF 486 (as to Senator Birdwell and Congressman Brady). But no party filed a reply addressing the issues raised with respect to the Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Stevenson, or Mr. Falk. And although the CM/ECF system was down from July 28th at 6:00 pm CT to August 1st at 8:00 am CT, as of the filing of this notice, no plaintiff has sought leave to file a late reply. See <https://www.txwd.uscourts.gov/2022/07/13/cm-ecf-will-be-unavailable-during-netxgen-conversion>.

Plaintiffs waive the issues as to the latter three depositions by failing to address them. Federal courts routinely hold that a moving party waives an issue raised by an opposing party where the former fails to address the issue in a reply brief. See, e.g., In re Xyrem (Sodium Oxybate) Antitrust Litigation, 555 F. Supp. 3d 829, 877, 879 (N.D. Cal. 2021) (“In their opposition, Plaintiffs clarified that the product hop allegations do not constitute a ‘viable stand-alone’ claim. Thus, on reply, Defendants no longer sought to dismiss the product hop allegations after. Opp’n at 29 n.11 (clarifying product hop); see Reply (no longer mentioning product hop). Accordingly, the Court need not address the product hop allegations.”) (citing Maciel v. Cate, 731 F.3d 928, 932 n.4 (9th Cir. 2013) as “holding that failing to address

[an argument] in [ ] reply brief” forfeits the argument” and Stichting Pensioenfonds ABP v. Countrywide Fin. Corp., 802 F. Supp. 2d 1125, 1132 (C.D. Cal. 2011) as “collecting cases holding same.”); Amerifreight Systems, LLC v. Deli Mgmt., Inc., No. 1:20-cv-4373, 2021 WL 3913177, at *1 (N.D. Ill. May 25, 2021) (“Deli Management failed to address this argument in its reply brief, and so waived the issue.”) (citing United States v. Berkowitz, 927 F.2d 1376, 1384 (7th Cir. 1991) for the proposition that “holding that failure to reply to an argument constitutes waiver.”); Garcia v. Dawabare, No. 2:06-cv-695, 2006 WL 2583745, at *2 (D. Nev. Sept. 6, 2006) (“By failing to file a reply brief, Defendant[s] arguments and evidence are essentially uncontested.”); Hardy v. City Optical Inc., 39 F.3d 765, 771 (7th Cir. 1994) (By failing to respond to an argument made in the opposition brief, the moving party “waives, as a practical matter, any objections not obvious to the court to specific points urged” by the opposing party.).

The motion for leave should be denied as to all of the Third Parties for the reasons explained in the Opposition brief. And as to the Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Stevenson, and Mr. Falk, the motion should be denied for the additional reason that plaintiffs failed to address the issues raised by Defendants and Third Parties. Opp. at 3–5, 6–7. This filing is to give notice that those issues are waived.
